BMPs in Public Housing

STOP Pests
in housing
www.StopPests.org

Allison Taisey
Northeastern IPM Center

IPM Training for Public Housing Authorities (PHAs)

HUD's Notices on IPM (PIH 2011-22) and Bed Bugs (PIH 2012-17)

Participating PHAs
- IPM in Multifamily Housing Trainings
- Consultation
- 50 Resident IPM Kits
- Tenant's Role in IPM DVD

General Public
- www.StopPests.org
- StopPests Blog
- E-mail/phone support
- Conference presentations

www.StopPests.org
Sources informing our BMPs

• HUD's Notices
  – Bed bugs: PIH 2012-17
  – IPM: PIH 2011-22
• Boston Housing Authority
• National Center for Healthy Housing (NCHH)
• NPMA's Bed Bug BMPs
• What's working for IPM in multifamily housing?
• Urban IPM experts across the country

IPM in Multifamily Housing Training

• Audience: PHA management, site staff, residents, local support organizations
• Tailored to a single AMP
• Day-long training
• Follow-up with monthly conference calls/e-mails
StopPests Blog

• Promote new resources and training opportunities
• Offer guidance on common challenge
• Publish sample resident newsletter content

Resident education resources

• Group training
  – IPM in Multifamily Housing Training
  – Resident council meetings
  – Resident training programs
• Printed information
  – Newsletter
  – Handouts
  – Posters
• One-on-one support
  – Those who can’t do their part
  – Those who won’t do their part
Housing association conferences

What you can do

• Explore StopPests.org—use what you like and share your resources with us
• Let your local housing providers know you have expertise
• Partner with housing providers
  – Reviewing products
  – Hiring contractors
  – Training residents and staff

Thank You